

Education Intern (Spring 2012)

The Butterfly Pavilion is currently seeking a creative, highly motivated and energetic individual to assist in implementing youth education programs as part of a team of talented and experienced staff and volunteers.

Job Announcement

Education Intern: Part-time, for credit/unpaid seasonal position, mid-January 2012 – June 2012

Responsibilities:

- Instruct interactive, creative, age-appropriate onsite science classes for school groups
- Collaborate with Education Department to develop and implement new curricula or programs
- Provide administrative support to Education Department—return emails and calls, send mailings, etc—in a non-profit setting
- 2-3 days per week, up to 16 hours per week

Qualifications:

- Pursuing or holding a degree in education, environmental sciences, biology or related fields
- Interest in teaching children and environmental education
- Good communication skills; interest in interacting with Butterfly Pavilion visitors
- Computer proficiency—word processing, spreadsheets and databases
- Willingness to handle animals—all training provided onsite
- Ability to work weekday mornings required
- Individuals of all ethnic backgrounds are encouraged to apply

Interested applicants should send cover letter and resume to:

Butterfly Pavilion
6252 W 104th Avenue
Westminster, CO 80020
Attn: Sarah Folzenlogen, Programs Manager

Fax: 303-657-5944

Email: education@butterflies.org

No phone inquiries please

Deadline: January 13, 2012

Anticipated Start Date: mid-January 2012 (training), full hours beginning February 2012